

LISA TAYLOR

WATCHING THE PARADE

Acrylic $300.00 16 x 20 inches

On January 21st the citizens of the town of San Miquel de Allende celebrate the birthday of Ignacio Allende with parades, speeches, fireworks. Ignacio Allende helped organize the independence movement against Spain. Children have the day off and march in their school uniforms. These children are watching the numerous military and school parades. They are in school uniform so they must have finished their part.